Conversations that Transcend Boundaries

The Balkan Forum Podcast is not just about talk – it's about forging a shared vision for our region. We believe in the power of conversation to foster understanding, integration, and lasting peace. With our guests and conversation topics we seek to get into the heart of diverse issues that shape the Balkans and its future.

From human rights to language and communication, economics to politics, environment and women empowerment and everything in between, our guests engage in enlightening conversations that offer fresh insights and thoughtful analyses. These discussions are more than just words – they're the building blocks of a more cohesive region.

Our podcast series brings a diverse range of voices. With their firsthand stories, experiences, and aspirations, each guest contributes a unique perspective to an intriguing journey of exploration, discovery, and connection.

Yours,

Powerful voices of Balkan women who are pathfinders and path-makers for other women and for a more equitable society. A series focusing on the incredible women of the Balkans. Theirs are stories of determination, breaking down barriers, fearless resilience, and above all, a drive to find and create paths for the other women, as a surest way to building a more equitable society for all. Aren't these Bold Balkan Women an inspiration?

How do foreigners and people living abroad view the rich and complex tapestry of the Western Balkans? With this series we seek a thought-provoking and inspiring exploration of varied topics related to the region through interviews with foreigners involved in Western Balkans issues and members of the Balkans diaspora; their fresh insights and perspectives and how to nurture constructive conversations.

We give the mic to them to whom the future belongs! This podcast series delves into the minds of the Balkan region's young people to explore the pressing issues that matter to them, and hear about their ideas for a better future. NextGen guests are the ones shaping the future Balkans. We aspire to produce an energizing series with the most optimistic demography of our region
